

Airplane Crashes Analysis

The first Airplane Crash was recorded in 1908. During a demonstration flight, a U.S. Army flyer flown by Orville Wright nose-dived into the ground from a height of approximately 75 feet, killing Lt. Thomas E. Selfridge who was a passenger. One of two propellers separated in flight, tearing loose the wires bracing the rudder and causing the loss of control of the aircraft.

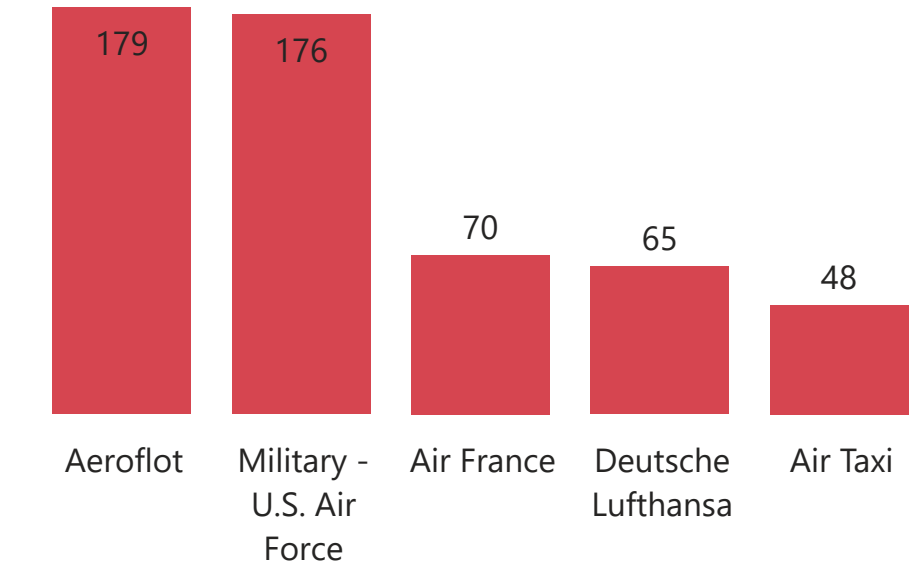

Airplane Crashes Over The Years

The Highest number of crashes in a calendar year so far is 104, and these crashes were recorded in 1972.

Operators With The Most Crashes Over The Years

Aeroflot has recorded the most crashes over the years with a fatality rate of 80.69%.

Airplane Crashes By Route

Most Crashes were recorded in training, with a total of 81 crashes.

Crashes By Month

More Crashes were recorded between August and January. This could be attributed to the weather during this season.

The Most Fatal Crash was recorded on the 27th of March, 1977 in Tenerife, Canary islands. The Boeing B-747-121 / Boeing B-747-206B was enroute Tenerife, Las Palmas with 644 passengers when the crash occurred. A total of 583 fatalities were recorded on this fateful day.